

TESTING FEE WAIVER

If you are applying for a test fee waiver, you must show proof of a verifiable financial hardship. Listed below are examples:

- Be unemployed at time of application submission
- Current Unemployment Check Stub/Statement
- A printout from Work Source Office or Unemployment Office any one of the Q-10, Q-14 or Q-03 forms
- Food Stamp Card
- AFDC Card
- Aid Verification Summary (AVS)
- Most recent IRS Income Tax filing (e.g., 1040), showing income at/below poverty level
- Other proof acceptable to Public Safety Testing, Inc. and/or agency or agencies.

I, hereby declare that I do not have available to me the financial resources with which to pay the testing fee to Public Safety Testing, Inc. to allow me to participate in the testing process for the following agency or agencies:

1.	2.

I understand that if this declaration is falsely made, it will result in the voiding of my test scores, regardless of where I may be in the testing and/or hiring process.
